Washtenaw 4-H Leader Spotlight: Angela Oakman of Hooves & Paws 4-H Club

We are lucky to have many tremendous leaders in Washtenaw County 4-H. One of these leaders, Angela Oakman of Hooves and Paws 4-H Club, was honored Angel Award for 2025. Even though Angela has only been a volunteer in 4-H since 2020, she has made a huge impact on the horse program.

Angela Oakman was the 4-H leader of Hooves and Paws 4-H Club since 2021 and the coach for the Washtenaw County 4-H Hippology and Horse Judging Teams since 2022. Angela served as an adult mentor to the 4-H youth on horse board and filled this role in 2025. Angela also received the Michigan Farm Bureau 4-H Excellence in Agriculture Award for the 2024-2025 program year.

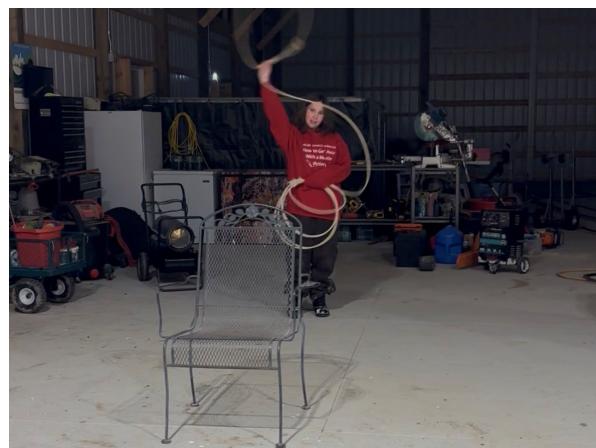

Leading up to and during the 2025 4-H Youth Show she was an indispensable member of the Horse Board who created a new horse dashboard to help families and youth navigate the 4-H Youth Show and deal with issues during the Youth Show. She also went out of her way to provide mentorship to a group of 4-H members looking to start a horse club.

Even now, as she has stepped down from her club leader role, she is still helping provide assistance and guidance to the 4-H youth on the horse board and also other 4-H horse leaders. She also continues to coach the Washtenaw County 4-H Hippology Team.

Thank you Angela for all you do for the youth of Washtenaw County 4-H!

If you have a 4-H leader or volunteers you would like to spotlight, please send in your information to Jenny Speyer, speyerje@msu.edu for the next newsletter.

Club Happenings: S & L Bauernhof 4-H Club

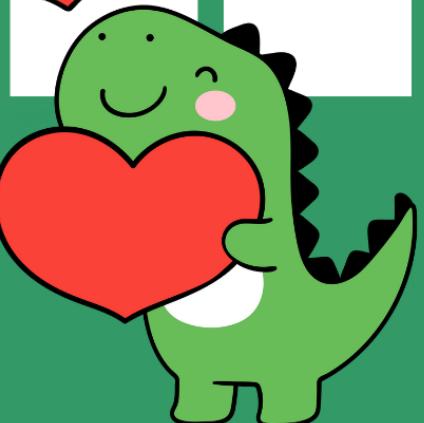

A small group of S&L Bauernhof 4-H Club members went to one of our members farm, Gracious and Plenty farms to work with some animals. Club member Bella Burger also taught the kids how to lasso. What a great time! We may have to recruit Bella to teach this at the 4-H Youth Show!

Don't forget to send in your club happenings along with photos to be included in our Washtenaw County 4-H Newsletter. Submissions can be sent to Jenny Speyer at speyerje@msu.edu.

4-H Thriving Model of Positive Youth Development

Building a sense of belonging in our 4-H program has been a long-standing tradition. What does this look like?

It may be a project leader, club leader, or event organizer welcoming you to each meeting or event. It may look like a “roll call” or “ice breaker” at the beginning of a meeting.

The initial welcome allows people to know that they have been seen in the room. So, the next time someone asks you a roll call question of “What’s your favorite cheese?”, know that there is a reason.

We want to get to know you. We want to hear your voice. We want the ability to start building relationships by finding likenesses among us.

Contact your local 4-H staff for more information.

Participate in the World Food Prize Michigan Youth Institute

As millions across the globe deal with food insecurity, the World Food Prize Michigan Youth Institute (WFP MIYI) offers young people an opportunity to be part of the solution. Held May 7 in East Lansing, or by participating from anywhere else using Zoom video/web conference technology, the event seeks to inspire and prepare the next generation of global leaders to end world hunger.

To participate, youth should be in grades 7-12 and register by the March 15 deadline. As part of the registration process, youth are required to prepare a three- to five-page research paper about a developing country and one of 22 key factors that affect food security. At the event, youth present and discuss their papers with other attendees and research and industry experts.

The top performing students at the WFP MIYI will be selected to attend the World Food Prize Global Youth Institute in Des Moines, Iowa, in October. For more information, visit <https://www.canr.msu.edu/wfpmiyi/>. Registration opens February 1 and closes March 15.
